GRAND MASTER OF MASONS

M 1900 . M3

Rochester, N. Y., October 14th, 1897

MR, W. H. JANES,

DEAR SIR AND BROTHER:

I take pleasure in stating that I have carefully examined the manuscript, both words and music, of your new "Masonic Musical Manual," and am persuaded that its general distribution will prove highly advantageous to the Lodges of this jurisdiction.

The music is carefully selected and judiciously arranged, and in the main within the compass of the average singer. The words selected are of the very best, and in my opinion the Manual cannot fail to be well received.

Very cordially and fraternally yours,

W. A. SUTHERLAND,

Grand Master

God bless our native land!
Firm may she ever stand.
Through storm and night;
When the wild tempests rave,
Ruler of wind and wave,
Do Thou our Country save,
By Try great might.

For her our prayer shall rise,
To God above the skies;
On Him we wait;
Thou who art ever nigh,
Guarding with watchful eye,
To Thee aloud we cry,
God save the State.

CLOSING.

Tune MASON.

We met in love, we part in peace,
Our lodge's labor o'er:
We'll pray, ere life's best days shall cease,
To meet in time once more.
'Mid fairest scenes to mem'ry dear,
In change of joy or pain;
We'll think of friends assembled here,
And hope to meet again.

Come, brothers, ere to-night we part, Join every voice and heart; Our solemn hymn to God we raise Our closing song of praise. Here, brothers, we may meet no more, But there's a happier shore; And there released from toil and pain We hope to meet again.

OPENING.

Tune DENNIS.

Let songs of endless praise,
From every heart arise;
Let all our brothers tribute raise
To God who rules the skies.

His mercy and His love
Are as His name Divine.
And all Eternity shall prove
His Light shall ever shine.

CIRCULATING LIBRARY.

(FREE READING)

(HOME READING)

For our many customers, who, having no room for a collection of books on Masonry, yet wish to be conversant with its origin and history, as well as proficient in all matters pertaining to the Lodge and its welfare, we have set aside several well-filled cases of rare, old and out-of-print works—Constitutions, Histories, Proceedings, etc., also a fine lot of up-to-date Monitors, Manuals, Jurisprudence. Worshipful Master's Assistant and others. (See list on preceeding pages.)

We invite you to consult them freely at the office, without charge or to use them at your homes at the rate of ten per cent. of their value for the first thirty days, and an additional five per cent. for each month thereafter—which will cover the expense of wear, tear, wrapping, book-keeping, etc. Thus, for a comparatively small item of cost you can add to your store of knowledge, for greater usefulness and personal enjoyment.

As time and carfare is an important item, you can order the books to be sent through the mail or express, by enclosing stamps or money-order equaling their value, which will be refunded, less the percentage, when the books are returned.

Readers in any part of the United States can take advantage of the mail rates—Books—¼ lb. for one cent,—which we advance by prepaying them to your express or post office, deducting the same when refunding balance.

Trusting you will find it convenient to make use of the books at our reading rooms, or try a selection from the list for your evenings at home,

We are, yours fraternally,

MACOY PUBLISHING & MASONIC SUPPLY CO., 45-7-9 JOHN ST., NEW YORK.
